Changning Campus of ECUPL is adjacent to Zhongshan park commercial area. Ten minutes walking will take you to the hub of several lines of metro station. Shanghai is becoming an International financial / trade and shipping center with the superb public service system. Since 1920s, Shanghai had been known as “Oriental Paris” with the collision and blending of different cultures. Great changes take place in this dynamic city everyday. Shanghai, which was the first city in far east, will achieve more than the past glory.

Founded in 1952, East China University of Political Science and Law (“ECUPL”) is among the first group of universities of politics and law established by the People’s Republic of China. Twin campuses are located in Changning and Songjiang district respectively. It has more than 20,000 students, and there are 22 undergraduate programs, 20 master’s programs, 10 Ph.D. programs, and a post-doctoral mobile station. During the past sixty years, ECUPL has developed into a multidisciplinary university that, while focusing on legal education, offers a variety of other disciplines such as political science, economics, management, humanities and computer science. With an international reputation as “The Oriental Pearl in legal education,” the University has been admitting international students since 1984. International Exchange Center and International Culture Exchange School are in charge of admission and administration, as well as exchange with overseas institutions.

PROGRAM HISTORY

ECUPL has a long history of joint legal programs with overseas institutions. Since 1984, ECUPL cooperated with Willamette University (US.) to develop Chinese Law Program. The program admits students from law schools in US., and the credits completed by the participants during the program are recognized by American Bar Association. ECUPL also operated similar programs with University of Sydney (Australia) and University of Leeds (UK). The distinguished faculty of ECUPL has extensive teaching and research experience. The Chinese Law Program helps international students overcome the language barrier and meets the increasing demands of international students for Chinese legal education.

GOAL AND CHARACTERISTIC

The program awards a Master's degree in law and provides opportunity of internship in the fields of international investment, international trade, or relevant Chinese law to promote students' abilities in dealing with legal issues concerning trade and investment in or with China. The primary focus of the program is on international law, the economic law of China, and Chinese legal practice. More internship in top law firm provided by cooperating with Shanghai Lawyer Association. After graduation, students can enter into legal practice involving China and international trade, or choose to apply for a doctoral degree in law.

WORDS FROM ALUMNA

China -- it's an amazing country with beautiful and developed cities and metropolitan areas. One of these cities for me is Shanghai – I'm struck by its splendor, variety, internationalization and rich culture. This city is fascinating. In this city I live, learn, and meet many interesting people. Here I have many friends from all over the world. Working in an office on the 32nd floor during my internship time, from my window I could see the entire city, about which I can justifiably say that I found myself immersed in it and I succumbed to "Shanghai's charms."

Prestigious East China University of Political Science and Law is the whole universe for me, and a special part of my life education that gave me not only knowledge from excellent teachers but also wonderful friends. The University gave me a sense of freedom, strength and confidence.
