

CALL FOR APPLICATION

‘Battleground Europe’ workshop
Budapest, 28 September 2015

The Antall József Knowledge Centre (AJKC) cordially invites you to participate in a workshop called ‘Battleground Europe’.

In 2015, the Knowledge Centre organizes the official professional side event of the NATO Partnership Running Festival (NATO Run), a two-panel workshop entitled ‘Battleground Europe’, which will concentrate on the Ukrainian crisis. The first panel will focus on Russia’s hybrid warfare, while the second panel will focus on the issues related to international law regarding the situation in Ukraine. The goal of the workshop is to encourage students to initiate lively discussions with each other with the help of an expert, in an informal environment, and deepen their knowledge of the topic, as well as form new relationships and improve international understanding and cooperation.

Workshop Schedule – 28 September 2015 (Monday)

13.30 - 15.00 First panel: Hybrid Warfare

15.30 - 17.00 Second panel: International Law

Evening: Cultural program (to be detailed)

Venue: AJKC’s lecture hall at Corvinus „C” building (4 Czuczor Street, 1093 Budapest)

Application: We expect applications from BA, MA or Ph.D. students from any field of study with a good knowledge of English and an interest in security and defence policy, international relations or international law. To apply, please send us:

- your Curriculum Vitae
- an approx. 1 page letter of motivation
- a preliminary travel cost calculation.

The letter of motivation should outline how you would benefit from participating in the workshop, and should include your ideas about how you will contribute to spreading the results of the debate and how you will use social media surfaces and other means of communication (e.g. at your home university) to engage in a discussion about the situation in Ukraine. The travel cost calculation should include the means of transportation you would use to travel to and from Budapest and the expected costs. Please note that in case of acceptance, the costs of travel and public transportation in Budapest will be partly covered by our institution taking into consideration the received travel cost calculations.

Please send your application to ajtk.regisztracio@gmail.com until 13 September 2015.
