

I'm writing to introduce the CHINESE GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIP-YOUTH OF EXCELLENCE SCHEME OF CHINA.

Our university will run the Master Program of International Economic Law, an English-taught law program sponsored by this scholarship targeting at fostering high-level legal talents.

Once successfully accepted into the program, the students will enjoy:

- full scholarships covering the tuition fees
- free accommodation
- living allowance approx. US$1200 per month
- reimbursement of economy class flight ticket
- health Insurance

This Master Program was initiated by the Ministry of Education of China to help realize Chinese government's commitment to fostering talents. The Ministry of Education has selected 7 top universities in China, including ECUPL, to hold programs in different areas, so that the students can benefit from the specialty of the university. Also, through the project, the students can grow social network and pool together their resources and intellect to make continuous contribution to their field of study. Against this background, ECUPL undertakes to hold the Master Program of International Economic Law taught in English. In the one-year Master-level program, the students will be able to learn from the top-level professors and experts in ECUPL, one of China's top law schools, and to broaden their horizon by living in the international metropolis of Shanghai. There will be numerous practice opportunities, enabling the students to better understand the status quo and development trend of China's economic law.

This year, we are authorized by the Ministry of Education to recommend candidates that:

1. By September 1, 2017, should be under the age of 45 years old.
2. Have bachelor's degree or above;
3. Have more than three years working experience in relative fields;
4. Have a good command of English so as to study in the English-taught program;
5. Play the leading role in a department or in doing research;

The final enrollment decision will be made by the Enrolment Committee organized by the Ministry of Education of China. Therefore, please understand that although ECUPL can recommend candidates which will enjoy priority during the selection, the Enrolment Committee has the final say.

Please kindly circulate the news. The application deadline is April 20, so if you have any qualified candidates who are interested in the program, please don't hesitate to write to us with the following information of the candidates: name; gender; date of birth; institution name; and job title and contacts. We really appreciate your support.

Best Regards,

Jinsheng Lai
Deputy Director
International Exchange Center
East China University of Political Science and Law
1575 Wanhangu Road, Shanghai, 200042, China