

UNODC Career Webinar

Are you a student or young professional interested in pursuing a career at the United Nations? Curious to understand what opportunities exist and what to pay attention to in your application?

Come and join our upcoming online career webinar to learn about entry level opportunities at the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)! You'll gain valuable insights into the organization's mission, culture, and recruitment process. This is your chance to explore exciting career paths and get a head start on your job search.

The online webinar will take place on Wednesday, 26 April 2023 at 15:00.

Register now to secure your spot through this link or through the below QR code. Registered participant will receive the login details separately a day before the webinar.

We look forward to seeing you!

The UNODC Recruitment Team

