

UNIVERZA NA POTI

Dear students of University of Ljubljana,

You still have approximately two months left to apply for the position of FIAT Ambassador. FIAT and University of Ljubljana have a joint project running from October to December 2015 in which all enrolled students can borrow FIAT cars to use free of charge (except for fuel costs). The cars will be located at University of Ljubljana and therefore we need someone to manage it. That is where the opportunity lies... would you like to build up some work experience and earn € 1200 in the process? Well then apply to become the FIAT ambassador!

The project will be running from October 5th to December 14th, 2015 and students will be able to book a FIAT car for use, they only need pay the costs for fuel and return the car to the parking place.

For this campaign FIAT is looking for an ambassador who will be in charge of managing the whole process. Please find the job description attached. Do note you will need to have a driver's license that is valid in the Slovenia to become FIAT AMBASSADOR.

So, hurry! If you are a regular student from University of Ljubljana and you consider your profile matches the role requirements, what are you waiting for? The next FIAT Ambassador could be you!

Deadline for Applications: July 31st, 2015

Check out the website www.fiatlikesu.eu and apply for an amazing job opportunity as Fiat Ambassador.

See you soon on board!
